

SENATORS HATE TO DROP PROBE

Seek Ways and Means to Prolong Session.

WEDNESDAY IS QUITTING TIME

Life of Committee Will End With Adjournment and No Way to Compel Attendance of Witnesses Has Yet Been Devised—Defense in Nye Bribery Case Use State Printer Crawford's Deputy in Effort to Discredit Story of Bribe Solicitation.

Columbus, O., May 27.—The senate bribery investigating committee, whose efforts to compel witnesses to testify were blocked, are busy discussing ways and means to prevent final adjournment of the legislature next Wednesday, the day selected for the final getaway. The obstacle put in their way was the action of three of the witnesses subpoenaed. Editor E. E. Cook of the Columbus Citizen, Editor N. G. Cochran of the Toledo News-Bee and Attorney C. J. Pretzman of Columbus, who in Justice Bosworth's court waived examination and were held to the grand jury on the charge of refusing to testify.

This delays disposition of the charges against them and meanwhile the hands of the committee are tied, because when the assembly adjourns Wednesday the committee passes out of existence. In order to rescind the adjournment resolution, concurrence of the house is essential, and it is not believed that this can be obtained, since the house has indirectly expressed its disapproval of the senate committee's functions and purposes. If necessary to secure the house's consent, it was said, the senators would be willing to make the investigating committee a joint one.

New Name Brought In. Testimony in the trial of Representative Nye on a charge of soliciting bribes embraced evidence designed to impeach the character of E. A. Crawford, state printer, the prosecuting witness, and Stanley F. Harrison, assistant sergeant-at-arms of the senate, also a witness for the state. In connection with the testimony directed at Harrison a new name was brought into the trial, that of Otto K. Shimanovsky, a Cleveland newspaper man. Prosecuting Attorney Turner sought to compel Harry W. Wilson, a Cleveland lobbyist, to admit that Shimanovsky had told him that his (Wilson's) telephone conversations to Cleveland had been overheard, and that as a result the senate probing committee would be disorganized.

E. S. Nichols, deputy state printer, on the stand denied evidence given by his chief that Representative Nye had come to the office looking for Crawford and had left word for Crawford to see him. Crawford had so testified, and said that in response to this message he had found Nye, whereupon the latter made his alleged $5000 bribe proposal.

CHURCH

Gives Himself Away Through Telephone Conversation

With Mayor Mitchell On Friday Afternoon

Arrested In Barberton In Telephone Office

Wanted Here On Charge Of "Bootlegging"

Brought Back By Chief Of Police Clements

Dan Church of this city, wanted here on a charge of "bootlegging," practically gave himself away to the authorities of Barberton, O., Friday afternoon through a telephone conversation with Mayor C. A. Mitchell. Church has been wanted for a week or more past on the charge, but it was learned by the police department that he had suddenly left the city after the arrest of Herbert Hammond.

Mayor Mitchell was considerably surprised late Friday afternoon when he received a call from Barberton and found Church at the other end of the line. Church said he called up to see if he was wanted in Mt. Vernon. The mayor refused to give any information and Church became insistent. He wanted to know if he was wanted for "bootlegging" or whether he was wanted as a witness in the Hammond case. Still the mayor would give Church no satisfaction.

Finally Church finished the conversation and an operator in the exchange at Barberton called Mayor Mitchell and said that Church wanted the charge of the telephone message reversed.

"Is he still in the office," inquired the mayor.

The operator said that he was waiting to see if the charges for the message were paid in Mt. Vernon.

"Then telephone to the police department and have them arrest the man and I will pay the telephone charges," said the mayor.

So it appears that while Church was waiting in the office to see about the charges on the message, the operator in the exchange telephoned to police quarters and the chief of police arrested Church in the telephone office. He was locked up in jail in that city and the officials here notified.

Chief of Police Clements left on the early morning train Saturday for Barberton and is expected back during the afternoon with the prisoner. An affidavit will be made against Church at once charging him with "bootlegging."

PINS HIS FAITH TO DEMOCRATS

Taft Seeks Aid to Defeat Wood Pulp Amendment.

MAKES OPEN FIGHT ON ROOT

President Fears Adoption of New York Senator's Proposed Change in Reciprocity Bill Will Pave Way For Tinkering With Measure That Will Prove Fatal to Its Passage—Is Very Much In Earnest in Effort to Prevent Its Success.

Washington, May 27.—That the amendments which are threatened to the reciprocity bill will fall is the sincere hope of President Taft. He is especially concerned over the wood pulp and paper amendment introduced by Senator Root in the interest of the paper manufacturers of New York state, for he fears that the adoption of the amendment would be the opening wedge for other changes in the bill which would mean certain death to the reciprocity proposition.

President Taft is apparently counting on Democratic votes to defeat the Root amendment and other proposed changes. He expressed the opinion to callers that enough Democratic votes would show up to prevent the acceptance of the Root amendment.

The president is very much in earnest in his fight against the Root and other proposed amendments. It is unusual to see him lined up against the senator from New York state, but his opposition to Mr. Root's proposition is entirely open. It was reported that an effort was being made to reach some understanding between the president and Mr. Root, but this was not confirmed.

CONGRESS IS BUSY WITH MANY PROBES

Gates Gives Information as to Steel Trust Methods.

Washington, May 27.—Today witnessed a grand demonstration by the Democratic committees of the house engaged in various investigations. The star proceeding was before the Stanley committee which is inquiring into the affairs of the United States Steel corporation. John W. Gates appeared before the committee to tell what he knows about the merger of the Tennessee Coal and Iron company with the steel corporation. Another headline attraction was staged before the committee on expenditures in the department of justice. Attorney General Wickham appeared for interrogation by the Democratic committee relative to the work of the department of justice in administering the anti-trust laws.

Victor Berger, the Milwaukee Socialist, appeared before the committee on rules to make an argument for the report on his resolution which provides for the creation of a special committee to inquire into the circumstances surrounding the arrests of the labor leaders who were charged with complicity in the Los Angeles dynamiting affair.

He Was Paralyzed.

The bell rang, and when she went to the door she found a sad faced woman. "Please, mum, can you help me some? I got six children and me husband is paralyzed."

"Why, certainly. Here's a quarter. Where is your husband?" "He's in jail, mum."

"In jail! Why, what is he in jail for?"

"For gittin' paralyzed, mum!"—New York Journal.

A farmer takes some pigs to market in a basket. He puts the first in with its head pointing one way and the next with its head in the opposite direction, the next with its head pointing the same way as the first, and so on. He stops when he has three heads pointing one way and three tails the other. How many pigs does he put in?

Clever Man.

With a sigh she laid down the magazine article upon Daniel O'Connell. "The day of great men," she said, "is gone forever."

"But the day of beautiful women is not," he responded. She smiled and blushed. "I was only joking," she explained hurriedly. Western Christian Advocate.

SHE SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Erie, Pa. — "I suffered for five years from female troubles and at last was almost helpless. I went to three doctors and they did me no good, so my sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and when I had taken only two bottles I could see a big change, so I took six bottles and I am now strong and well again. I don't know how to express my thanks for the good it has done me and I hope all suffering women will give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It was worth its weight in gold."—Mrs. J. P. ENGLISH, R. F. D. No. 7, Erie, Pa.

Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. It is free and always helpful.

Do Ghosts Haunt Swamps?
No, Never. Its foolish to fear a fancied evil, when there are real and deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marshes, bayous, and lowlands. These are the malaria germs that cause ague, chills and fever, weakness, aches in the bones and muscles and may induce deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters destroys and casts out these vicious germs from the blood. "Three bottles drove all the malaria from the system," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had fine health ever since." Use this safe, sure remedy only 50c at G. R. Baker & Co. Mt. Vernon, and F. Fink, Fredericktown.
